WHO WE ARE

Construction Assist provides tailored non-contentious construction legal advice to assist your business.

Whether it's providing ad hoc advice on a construction contract, or negotiating a complex construction transaction, our team of solicitors can provide you with the assurances that all your construction legal requirements will be dealt with efficiently and hassle-free.

We provide a bespoke service tailored to your requirements, enabling you to create the right package to suit your company.

ON-DEMAND SUPPORT

You may already have some legal support but require specialist advice, or you may just need one-off support. Either way, we can provide low-cost, on-demand support for your construction legal requirements.

² Nockolds hosts a number of networking events that companies would be invited to attend.

³ Nockolds' corporate responsibility policy would extend to Construction Assist companies. This would allow you to: a) nominate a charity for consideration by Nockolds employees as Nockolds' Charity of the Year; b) Nockolds employees have three days' paid leave to assist / participate / contribute to charity projects - companies are welcome to propose projects or to participate in combined team projects; c) Combine charitable activities across Nockolds and your company to maximise charitable gain.

³ Access to all legal updates and specific seminars provided by Nockolds, which include commercial areas such as employment.

⁴ Access to guidance from Nockolds' business support teams (i.e. Client Care). In-house construction seminars of your choice.
